PROHIBITION ON DEALING, COMMUNICATING OR COUNSELLING ON MATTERS RELATING TO INSIDER TRADING

No Insider shall:

- ❖ either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other person, deals in securities of the Company when in the possession of any unpublished price sensitive information; or
- ❖ communicates, counsel or procures, directly or indirectly any unpublished price sensitive information to any person. However, these restrictions shall not be applicable to any communication required in the ordinary course of business or under any law.

TRADING RESTRICTIONS

All Directors / Officers and designated employees of the Company shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below:-

1. Trading Window:

The period prior to declaration of Price Sensitive Information is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Directors, Officers and Designated Employees will, during that period, often possess unpublished price sensitive information. During such sensitive times, the Directors, Officers and Designated Employees will have to forego the opportunity of trading in the Company's securities. The Directors, Officers and Designated Employees of the Company shall not deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as prohibited period.

The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed at the time of:

Policies and Manuals: code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information

- Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual);
- Declaration of dividends (interim and final);
- Issue of securities by way of public / rights / bonus, etc.;
- Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
- Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back;
- Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking;
- Any changes in policies, plans or operations of the Company disruption of operations due to natural calamities;
- Litigation/dispute with a material impact;
- Any information which, if disclosed, in the opinion of the person disclosing the same is likely to materially affect the prices of the securities of the Company;
- The period of closure shall be effective from the date on which the Company sends intimation to Stock Exchange advising the date of the Board Meeting, up to 24 hours after the Price sensitive information is submitted to the Stock Exchange.
- The trading window shall be opened 24 hours after the Price Sensitive Information is made public.
- All Directors, Officers, Designated Employees of the Company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the free period and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the prohibited periods or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

- To provide assistance in preventing inadvertent violations of applicable SEBI Regulations and Securities Laws and to avoid the appearance of impropriety in connection with the purchase and sale of Company's Securities, all transactions in Company's Securities (including without limitation, acquisitions and dispositions of Company's Securities, cashless exercise of stock options) by the Insiders must be pre-cleared.

- In case of stock options (ESOPs), exercise of options under Cash method is allowed during the period when the trading window is closed. However, the sale of shares allotted on exercise of stock options is strictly prohibited when trading window is closed.

The pre-clearance needs to be approved and obtained as under:

- All Pre-clearances needs to be applied to the Compliance Officer
- The Pre-clearances will be approved jointly by the Group CFO and Compliance Officer of the Company
- All Insiders may trade in the Company's Securities only after obtaining pre-clearance of the proposed transactions from the Compliance Officer by submitting an application as per Annexure I and declaring that they are not in possession of any price sensitive information.
- Any oral request from the Insider under this Code and/or oral confirmation for trading in Securities of the Company is not acceptable and shall not be regarded as a valid request or approval for trading in Securities of the Company.
- The approval/rejection would be conveyed through electronic mail. If consent to trade in the Company's Securities is refused, the refusal in itself will constitute Price Sensitive Information and should not be divulged to any party. The consent or refusal to a trading request will be communicated as soon as possible following the request being made and a copy of the response will be given to the person concerned. If a request to trade is refused, the Compliance Officer shall

Policies and Manuals: code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information

- provide a written statement of the reasons, to the extent possible, for withholding his or her consent.
- Unless the Insider concerned receives a formal communication from the Compliance Officer granting clearance to trade, no approval shall be deemed to have been granted and the Insider cannot trade in Securities of the Company.
- While granting permission, the Compliance Officer may impose certain conditions or restrictions, as may be necessary.
- Also, Insider can trade only upto the number of Securities for which the approval is granted by the Compliance Officer. Any trade which is in excess of number of Securities for which approval has been granted or which is of a kind different from what has been approved, is not permissible. The same will require a fresh approval as provided in the Code.
- As an example, if approval has been granted to employee “A” for buying 100 shares, then subject to other conditions of the Code, “A” can buy upto 100 shares but cannot undertake any sale of shares. Also, approval for “A” will not be construed as approval for another employee “B”, unless the process as provided in the Code is followed by “B”.

pre-clearance for dealings by the compliance officer

- In case the Compliance Officer of the Company intends to trade in the Securities of the Company.
- he / she shall seek pre-clearance of trade from the Board of the Director of the Company. All other provisions of the Code will mutatis-mutandis apply in respect of transactions by the Compliance Officer.
